BURNLEY COLONIAL

Funeral at Haggate of Sergeant who succumbed to Gas Poisoning

After serving eighteen months in France with the Australian Imperial Forces, which he joined in the distant colony nearly three years ago, Sergeant William (Billy) Thomas, son of Mrs Thomas, of 10, Faraday-street, Burnley, died in hospital at Exeter on Sunday, May 19th, from the effects of severe gas poisoning contracted during the recent heavy fighting on the Western Front. Sergeant Thomas, who was 30 years of age, and single, went to Australia, seven years ago, being previously employed as a loom-oiler at Rake Head Mill, Burnley. In Australia he was an out-door worker engaged on railway construction. He was formerly associated with Mount Zion Primitive Methodist Chapel and Sunday School, Colerne-road, where he is on the roll of honour. Sergeant Thomas was wounded some twelve months ago in France, and on returning to his unit after treatment, it was found necessary that he should undergo an operation to remove shrapnel from his arm, following which he again was sent on active service. He had served in Egypt prior to being drafted to France. His brother, Driver Ernest Thomas, R.F.A., who enlisted in May, 1915, has also served in Egypt and France, and a cousin, Private Samuel Buckley, of Burnley, was killed in action about twelve months ago.

The funeral of the late Sergeant Thomas took place at Haggate Baptist Chapel. The mourners were: Mrs Thomas, Evelyn Thomas, Mr and Mrs Redman, Mr and Mrs Hargreaves, Mr and Mrs Perkins and Doris, Mr and Mrs John Thomas, Miss Nellie Redman, Miss Ethel Hargeaves, Miss Ena Redman, Misses Sarah and Lily and Master Hargreaves, Mrs Holsgrove, Mr William Buckley, Mr Fred Buckley, Mrs Teale, Mrs Hart, Warrant-officer Syd. E. Yeomans, Mrs Hodson, Mrs Dodson, Mr J. Allen and the Rev. W. Clark.

Floral tributes were sent from:- His sorrowing mother and brother Ernest (in France); Evelyn; Lizzie, Nellie and Edna; Eliza, Will, and daughter Doris; John, Emma and daughter Ena; Annie, Jem and children, Ethel, Sarah, Lily, Harold and John; Mr and Mrs Holsgrove, William and Fred; Mr and Mrs Seal and family; Mrs Allen and family; Mr Hart, Sarah, Ann, Clare and Fred (in France); Mrs Windle and daughters; the Nursing Staff and Patients of No. 1 Ward V.A.D. Hospital, Exeter; Mrs Snowball and Mrs Anderson, Australian Red Cross Visitors; from his fellow Australian soldiers in No. 5 Military Hospital, Exeter; Annie and Phyllis; Mr and Mrs J. Redman and family; his old friend Nellie Whitham; Mr and Mrs Dodson and family; Mr and Mrs Hodson and family; Nellie Haggarth; Warrant Officer Syd E. Yeomans, an Australian comrade representing Administration Headquarters, A.T.F., London; and Mr and Mrs George H. Smith.

Messrs Geo. Smith & Sons, of Padiham-road, carried out the funeral arrangements.

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Serjeant W. Thomas does have a personal inscription on his headstone.
